FUEL SITUATION IN ENP

NWR is aware of the fuel issue in the Etosha National Park. Enercon, our third party supplier is on their way to Okaukuejo to give an emergency supply and the situation should get back to normal this morning still.

The fuel pumps are also being attended too and should be running by today the 5th of March at our service stations in Halali and Terrace Bay

NWR would like to sincerely apologise for the inconvenience caused by the fuel situation. Further meetings with our 3rd party supplier will today will ensure this unfortunate situation comes to an end.
