AIR NAMIBIA INCREASES DOMESTIC AND REGIONAL FLIGHTS

Air Namibia is pleased to announce schedule changes effective 30 March 2019, in effort to improve our service offering on our domestic and some regional routes. The national airline will increase capacity on routes where we often have high levels of spillage, and also introducing flights on days of week most suited to our clients requirements as follows;

1. Eros – Ondangwa – Eros: flight frequencies will increase to 20 per week, from previously 17 flights per week. Additional frequencies will be introduced on Fridays, Sundays and Wednesdays. This will result in a total of 3 flights on each of these 3 days of the week.

2. Eros – Katima Mulilo – Eros: flight frequencies will be increased from the current 4 to 5 per week, with the new additional rotation scheduled for Thursdays.

3. Eros – Rundu – Eros: flight frequencies will be increased from the current 3 to 4 per week, with the new additional rotation scheduled for Mondays.

4. Ondangwa – Walvis Bay – Ondangwa: flight frequencies will remain on 3 flights per week, currently operated on Saturdays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Days of operation will change to Fridays, Sundays and Wednesdays.

5. Windhoek – Lusaka – Windhoek: flights will change days of operation, with frequency increase to 4 per week, previously 3 flights per week. New days of operation will be Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

6. Windhoek – Harare – Windhoek: flights will change days of operation, with frequency increase to 4 per week, previously 3 flights per week. New days of operation will be Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
