Die Vorstellung ist wundervoll, noch wundervoller ist das Erlebnis.
