IDEMNITY FORM

SKL Group of camps or any of its members, officers, employees or agents, accepts no responsibility for any death, injuries, loss or damage sustained or suffered by any person occurring within or rising from a visit organised or undertaken by it or any of its vehicles and use of its facilities. In addition the company shall have a right at any time and at its discretion, to cancel any tour or the reminder thereof, or make any tour being rendered impossible, illegal or inadvisable by weather, floods, strike, war, Government or interference of any cause whatsoever, the extra expense incurred as a result thereof shall be the responsibility of a traveller. Comprehensive travel insurance is therefore advisable for any safari trail or visit.

Although SKL Camps takes all precautions, all facilities provided by SKL Camps are accepted by guests with full knowledge that they may be exposed to danger during their stay in wild reserves and that the guest voluntarily accepted such exposure. We however assure our guests maximum safety and all our property has an active emergency evacuation on place, as per the company insurance policy. The latter does not cover expenses of any incidents caused by negligence or failure to adhere to restrictions and regulations given by SKL Camps or any of its servants or agents. Please be aware that these safaris may take you into close contact with wild animals. While attacks by wild animals are very rare and precaution is taken to ensure your safety, no guarantee can be given that this will not occur. Neither the company nor the employees or agents can be held responsible for any injury or incident on the safari. The PASSENGERS acknowledges that there are dangers and risks inherent in these trails and PASSENGERS agree to accept all such risks connected with or arising from any aspect of the trail. Vehicles breakdown constitute an element of this risk. All the trails and activities shall only commence with the signing of this indemnity, Failure to adhere may result to cancellation of one's stay and or participation in any safari trails including visiting our campsites.
